Description
The next generation of the worlds best musubi rice molds from Ko Craft. This single musubi mold is part of the Alo Hale collection, or 'Home Living', for those who deserve the best quality tools in their kitchen. A well made "SMALL KINE" single musubi mold made of commercial medical grade stainless steel for durability and strength with a silicone handle for comfort. The mold and press have been improved from the previous version. The metal box is made with slightly thicker metal and laser welded for a clean strong bond. It is hand polished. The press is made with a solid and thick single piece of metal for the base leaving no gaps for food to get trapped and the handle is covered in silicone for comfortable ergonomic usage. The silicone handle is available in either light gray or dark gray. To use, fill the mold half way with with rice, press, then add the filling like spam, then add more rice and press flat with the silicone handle press. approximately 3 3/4 L x 1 15/16 W x 1 15/16 H inches and fits a SPAM slice perfectly. No more worrying about breaking acrylic makers or unsanitizable molds.. The Small Kine musubi mold is ideal for restaurants, high volume operations and homes that desire quality kitchen tools that will last. dishwasher safe.
